

Assalamu alaikum and good afternoon everyone. my name is Md. Abu Towsif. I will present my home district, Naogaon.

So, Naogaon is a district in northern Bangladesh, part of Rajshahi division. It has an area of 3435 sq km. It is bounded by West Bengal state of India on the north, Natore and Rajshahi district on the south, Joypurhat, Bogura, Natore districts on the east and Chapai Nawabganj district on the west.

Now if we talk about my district's population and literacy rate, then according to the 2022 census of Bangladesh, it has a population of 2.7 million, of which 1.3 million are male and 1.4 million are female. The male and female ratio of my district is 0.92:1. The literacy rate of Naogaon is 72.14% for the population of 7 years and older, according to the 2022 census of Bangladesh.

Our district has a predominantly agricultural economy, with its fertile land supporting the cultivation of various crops like rice, jute, wheat, sugarcane etc. It is an important farming region with extremely fertile soil and one of the highest cultivation rates of rice than any other district.

My district offers several attractions for the visitors. It has some historical sites like Sompura Mohavihara. Perhaps Naogaon is most well known for the Sompura Mohavihara which is being designed as a UNESCO World Heritage site in 1985. There is also the Kushumba Mosque which is nicknamed as the Black Gem of Bangladesh.

Our district has some other tourist spots like the Altadighi National Park which is situated at Dhamoirhat Upazilla. Also the Bolihar Rajbari is situated at Mohadevpur Upazilla.

There are six MP from Naogaon. They are all from Bangladesh Awami League.

There are also some renowned personalities from Naogaon district. James is one of the most popular singer and musician in Bangladesh. Footballer Enamul Haque is also from Naogaon. The present food minister Mr. Sadhan Chandra Majumder is from my district.

It can be said that Naogaon combines historical significance, agricultural prosperity and natural charm making it an interesting and culturally vibrant part of Bangladesh. Showcases a rich cultural heritage, natural beauty, and immense potential for economic development. Its archaeological treasures, cultural heritage, and agricultural significance make it a district worth exploring and investing in.

At the end of my presentation I want to thank you all for taking the time to explore my beloved district, Naogaon. As I conclude this presentation, I would like to express my sincere gratitude for your attention and engagement. Lastly, I can assure you that Naogaon can be a potential travel destination for all of us. By choosing to visit my district, you will not only contribute to the local economy but also get to witness the vibrant spirit and resilience of our community.
